

K PHONIC SOUND GAME

KANGAROO HOPPING HUNT GAME.

Children love to hop! When you play this game, you'll see that it just comes naturally. One mention of hopping and they just HOP!

WHAT YOU WIL NEED

- Small bag that are able to tie around waists.
- Images of K sounds these can be objects that can be carried
- Plenty of space.

HOW TO MAKE THE KANGAROO POUCHES

Use a small bag or handbag that can be tied around your child's waist. This is your child's joey pouch.

HOW TO PLAY THE KANGAROO HOPPING GAME

- First "hide" as many K sound objects or kangaroo images in a room that is safe to hop in.
- Tie the pouch/bag around each child's waist, as you would an apron.
- Have the kids hop around and collect all the K phonic sounds they can find.
- Let them empty their pouches and count how many K sounds they found.

EXTENDED IDEAS.

After your child has become confident hopping like a kangaroo, maybe add some measuring tapes to see how far your child can hop, challenge your child to jump the furthest, use language that extends thinking. I wonder how far you can jump? What can make you jump the highest?

Perhaps even have kangaroo races, or spend time with your child talking about kangaroo and where they live in the world .

Below are some printable resources that can help with the kangaroo hop game.

www.fun-with-pictures.com

www.fun-with-pictures.com

www.fun-with-pictures.com

 www.fun-with-pictures.com

