

Ice cream challenge

What you will need:

Paper, pen, scissors.

What you need to do: draw two shapes on the paper one that looks like a cone and a half moon shape to represent the ice cream. Cut them out....Write letters on each for child name. (One cone and one icecream shape with same letter).

This game is good for recognition of letters and matching, give encouragement when they match the letters and create an icecream. Repeat each sound to build good understanding.

EYFS covered: communication and language with listening and attention, speaking. Literacy with reading and recognition of letters.
